

Step 1:

Go to: <https://alberta.relaisd2d.com/?LS=ALAP>

Step 2:

Type in the title, author, or subject you're looking for. The default search is Public Libraries. To search Academic Libraries, choose Academic Libraries - ALAP from the drop-down search group menu.

Step 3:

A list of results will appear. You can see if it's a book, audiobook, DVD, etc. by the icon to the right of each title. A list of libraries with copies is below the title.

Tip: You can narrow your search with the limiters (date, format, subject, etc.) that appear on the left side of the screen. Choose a limiter if desired and click Apply or click on the search limiter.

Step 4:

For more information click on the title. If the item can be requested from Parkland there will be a link to our catalogue. If the item can be requested from another public library in Alberta you can complete the request.

You will need your library card barcode and PIN.
